CV Dr Katja Gentinetta

Katja Gentinetta completed her studies in history and political philosophy at the universities of Zurich and Paris with a Ph.D. in political philosophy. She furthermore holds a Master of Art in Cultural Management. Katja Gentinetta started her career by directing the „Forum Schlossplatz“, a cultural institution in Aarau, and managed thereafter the presentation of the Canton of Aargau at the national exhibition Expo.02. She then was appointed Head of strategy and external relations at the state chancellery of Aargau. From 2006 to 2011 Katja Gentinetta was Deputy Director and Head of Strategy and Planning of Avenir Suisse, a think tank headquartered in Zurich. In that position she focused on social security matters in Switzerland, the problem of social justice in general and foreign policy. „Toleranz ohne Grenzen?” (2002), „Die AHV – eine Vorsorge mit Alterungsblindheit” (2009), „Abschied von der Gerechtigkeit – Für eine Neujustierung von Freiheit und Gleichheit im Zeichen der Krise” (2009) are some of her books published as author or co-editor. Her most recent book „Souveränität im Härtetest: Selbstbestimmung unter neuen Vorzeichen” (2010) analyses the sovereignty of Switzerland and presents an outlook on European as well as global policy of Switzerland. Katja Gentinetta left Avenir Suisse by the end of February 2011 to be the one of the hosts of the TV programme „Sternstunde Philosophie” of German speaking Swiss National TV (SF DRS). In the future she will also work as an independent publisher, speaker and moderator. Katja Gentinetta is a Swiss citizen.
